March 15, 2006 IESNA Meeting

Naomi Miller of Naomi Miller Lighting Design

Award winning lighting practices

Naomi is one of the top lighting designers in the nation. Recognized internationally as one of the leaders in lighting solutions, Naomi has addressed subjects from the aging eye to working with shadows. A regular speaker at LightFair and the IDA, most recently she addressed the World Light Show in Milan, Italy. We are very fortunate to have Naomi Miller address the Arizona section. She received her M.S. in lighting from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy NY in May 2000. Thesis topic: Lighting for VDT Offices: An improved metric for judging the acceptability of direct luminaires in offices using computer screens. Naomi Miller Lighting Design has received numerous Guth Awards for work on all fronts, in particular in sanctuary lighting, i.e. Christ the King Church, Albany, NY, St Marys Church, Hudson, NY, Assumption St. Paul, the list goes on and on. Please join us for a fun filled and educational meeting with world renown Naomi Miller.
