May 23, 2006 IESNA Meeting

Want help getting control of your energy use?

Are you an APS customer, there is money and expertise available!

Wayne Dobberphul and Bill Biesemeyer with APS will present their Demand Side Management Program.

The Arizona Corporation Commission has ruled that DSM is a priority and has set aside Millions of dollars of ratepayer funds to help in the effort to limit electrical system demand and enhance the energy performance of equipment and buildings.

These programs provide customers with incentives, education, and technical support to aid customers in the implementation of energy conservation projects. The New Non-Residential DSM programs include: Schools, New Construction and Renovation, Energy Information Services
