1. Herberger Theater Center - Lunch Time Tour April 27th
2. Friday May 6th (6pm) see—The Mystery of Irma Vep

The Herberger Theater Center April 27th is a non-profit organization whose mission is to support and foster the growth of performing arts in Phoenix as the premier performance venue, arts incubator and advocate. Join us for a guided lunch time tour and view first hand the new lighting renovations.

The Mystery of Irma Vep at the Herberger May 6th, 6pm If we get a large enough group we will qualify for a group discount. Tickets for the production will start at about $30. Two lightning-fast actors portray all the residents of the Mandacrest estate—as well as a host of vampires, werewolves, mummies and things that go bump in the night—who travel from the moors of England to the tombs of Egypt and back again. With Gothic plot turns thrown out like thumbtacks in the road, along with a stage full of outrageous sets and costumes, Irma Vep will keep you in stitches right up until the final twist.

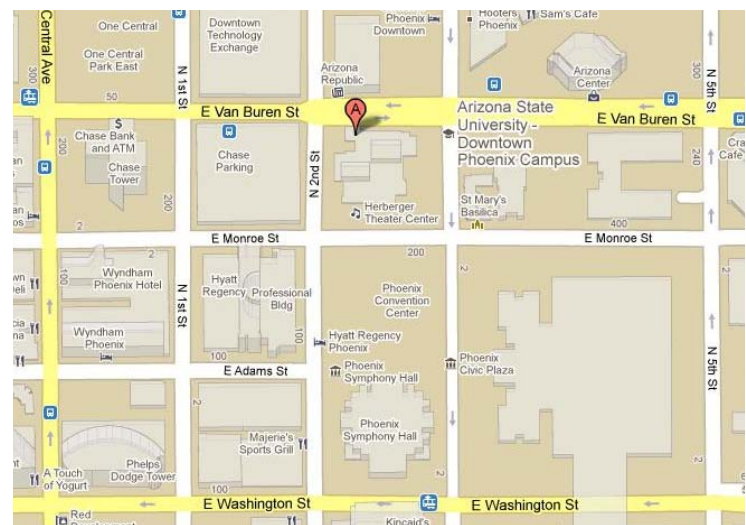

Technical Director Randy Levine will be giving us a personal Lunch Time Tour of the newly updated and renovated theater.
